Arvid Tomayko

Artistic Discipline(s) Interdisciplinary | Media Arts | Music
GPAC Member Since 22 April 2018

Artist Statement

Arvid Tomayko is an experimental musician and multimedia artist exploring the intersection of expressive electronic sound performance, process driven composition and interactive installation. His pieces are realized as unique auditory and visual performance systems that alternately focus or expand the capabilities of the performer. Tomayko's performance work questions how time is experienced what “now” means on timescales from milliseconds to millions of years.

Artist's Website