

GRANTEE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT GUIDELINES

LAST UPDATED SEPTEMBER 2022

Congratulations on your funding! As part of your grantee agreement, you are required to acknowledge the Greater Pittsburgh Arts Council as the funder for your project. Below, you'll find guidelines to make this acknowledgement easy!

CREDIT LINE FOR GRANTEES

This [organization, project, or program] is supported in part by the Greater Pittsburgh Arts Council through its [insert grant name].

ACRONYM

The Greater Pittsburgh Arts Council is well-known within the arts community as its acronym, "GPAC." In an effort to increase our public awareness and understanding of our work, please refrain from using this acronym and use "Arts Council" instead.

BOILERPLATE

This boilerplate can be used in any communications about the Arts Council or our grants, as needed.

The Greater Pittsburgh Arts Council champions the arts in Southwestern Pennsylvania, providing financial, professional, and political support for the arts and culture sector. Comprised of more than 600 diverse artists and nonprofit organizations, the Arts Council offers valuable research, legal and business consulting, networking, and professional development opportunities so that artists, as well as arts leaders and organizations, can grow their skills and advance their practice. The Arts Council provides grants for artists and arts organizations, leads the region's arts advocacy at the local, state, and national level, and models best practices for accessibility and equity in the arts.
